

Jew Blood line or not? Zionist V's anti-Semitism, and the seed of Abraham Deception.

Anti-Semitism

Zionist organisations are becoming increasingly dependent upon the charge of "anti-Semitism" as a political weapon.

Anti-Semitism has a very precise definition. It refers to remarks or acts targeting the ethnic group termed Semites, which comprises both Jews and Arabs.

The Hebrew Encyclopedia defines anti-Semitism as all manifestations of hatred and racism directed against Semites. The Fact is that anti-Semitism also comprises all manifestations of hatred and racism directed against all Arabs.

Zionist media and political forces have warped this definition in several ways.

They have manipulated the concept of Semitic ethnicity so as to apply to Jews alone, thereby enabling them to level the allegation of anti-Semitism against the Arabs in spite of the fact that they constitute the majority of the Semitic peoples.

In addition, they have stretched the definition of anti-Semitism to include any criticism of Israel and Israeli policy.

Now anyone who speaks out against the aggression and inhumane practices practiced by Israel risks being branded "anti-Semitic".

Thus the label "anti-Semitic" has acquired enormous deterrent power and is used reguilly by Zionists.

Now confident in having monopolised the field as Semites, so as to hurl "anti-Semite" at all and sundry who criticise Israel, Zionist leaders can spew the most atrocious racist abuse against others. It's the pot calling the kettle black.

"Jews" have no blood-link to the Israelites of the Bible.

Jewish historian scholars have established that at least 90% of all Jews come from a Turkish-Mongol mix of people and are largely sourced from the Khazar Kingdom. These "Jews" have no blood-link to the Israelites of the Bible.

The Jewish scholar Arthur Koestler provided overwhelming evidence, for the above in his famous 1976 work, "THE THIRTEENTH TRIBE - THE KHAZAR EMPIRE AND ITS HERITAGE" showing, "that in the 8th century, Khazaria which was greatly made-up of the Turkish-Mongol mixed people known as Khazars, converted to their national religion of Judaism which was based on the Babylonian Talmud.

These same people then migrated to eastern Europe, especially to Hungary and Poland, taking their Babylonian religion with them.

"The Khazar origin of the numerically and socially dominant element in the Jewish population of Hungary during the Middle Ages is thus relatively well documented." Page

"As already mentioned, the trade in fox and sable furs, which had been flourishing in Khazaria, became another virtual Jewish monopoly in Poland.

Benjamin Freedman, another Jewish researcher, wrote his famous treatise FACTS ARE FACTS in 1954.

Freedman quotes from many historical sources and shows that the vast majority of Jews derive from the Turkish-Mongol mixed people of the Khazar Kingdom of the 2nd to 10th centuries, NOT from Biblical Israelite stock.

The facts are so clear as to the non-Israelite, racially-mixed origin of the modern day, Jews that the following appeared as a subheading to Freedman's book. "The historic facts revealed here for the first time provide incontestable evidence that their continued suppression will prove inimical to the security of the nation, the peace of the world, the welfare of humanity, and the progress of civilisation."

Indeed, those words have proven to be quite prophetic as we witness the increasing terrorism and violence sparked by the continued blind of Zionist christians and U.S. unilateral aid to the Khazarian-Israelis.

Relatively recent genetic studies corroborate the historical facts that the Jews are of partly Turkish origin.

An article a out of the "Ha'Aretz" Jewish newspaper form Nov. 22, 2001 was entitled, "Study finds close genetic connection between Jews, Kurds." The article opened, by saying, "The people closest to the Jews from a genetic point of view may be the Kurds, according to results of a new study at, the Hebrew University.

Scientists who participated in the research said findings seem to indicate both peoples had common ancestors who lived in the northern half of the Fertile Crescent, where Northern Iraq and Turkey are today. Some of them, it assumed, wandered south and settled on the eastern shores of the Mediterranean."

(Abraham) The article goes on to state, "The study's findings are published in the current issue of The American Journal of Human Genetics.

The researcher's used the DNA of 1,847 Jewish men of Ashkenazi, Sephardi and Kurdish descent, Muslims and Christians of Kurdish, Turkish and Armenian descent, various Arab populations, & Russians, Poles and residents of belarus."

Additionally, it has been known for many years that a large proportion of Jews have oriental admixture in their ancestry. So Mongol infusion is also a probable part of their mixed heritage.

Now for the big Zionist Deception "The Seed of Abraham"

Zionists miss quote Scripture probably because they don't read and study Scripture. Most Zionist christians sit under a leader for two hiurs a week and believe everything he says without question.

One of the deceptions spun out by Zionist leaders is the misquote of "Bless Israel and be blessed and curse Israel and be cursed".

Ever tried to find that in Scripture??

This deception gets people believing that God wants "Believers" to "bless Israel" no matter what and if they don't bless Israel or are found speaking against the Zionist state then they believe that Scripture says they will be cursed.

So where do these deceived and deceiving Zionists get their ammo?

Speaking to "Abraham" God says ...

Ge 12:2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:

Ge 12:3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

Did you see the term Israel in that text? NO

Who was God talking to when he referred to "Thee"? Abraham

Now Zionist here's your problem right in Galatians 3:7-9.

7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

So from the above ... who is the seed of Abraham that is to be blessed?

Who is the seed of Abraham that if one curses he will be cursed?

It is the "they which are of faith" or "Believers" who are the seed of Abraham.

If you bless "they which are of faith" or "Believers" then you will be blessed.

If you curse "they which are of faith" or "Believers" then you will be cursed.

The Zionist State of man made Israel has nothing to do with this Scripture.

From the inception of the Zionist State and particularly in recent times, the impression has been created in the World that there is some connection between the State, which falsely calls itself Israel, and the Jewish people as a whole. Therefore, we wish to clarify the following points:

* A Jew is one who remains faithful to the laws of the Jewish religion, that is, the Holy Torah and its commandments as opposed to the Babylonian Talmud.

* The Jewish people became a people before they had their own land, and continued to exist as a people also after they went into exile, because our very peoplehood is based exclusively on the Torah.

* The Holy Land was given to the Jewish people on the condition that they observe the Torah and its commandments. When they failed to do this, their sovereignty over the land was taken from them, and they went into exile. From that time, we are prohibited by the Torah with a very grave prohibition to establish a Jewish independent sovereignty in the Holy Land or anywhere throughout the world. Rather, we are obligated to be loyal to the nations under whose protection we dwell.

* This situation has existed for close to 2000 years when the Jewish people were dispersed throughout all corners of the world. During this time, the Jews always remained faithful to the country in which they lived.

* The Jewish people are grateful to all those merciful nations which have allowed them to observe Torah and the commandments undisturbed.

* From ancient times, the relations between the Jewish and Islamic peoples have always been those of peace and brotherhood, and friendship always reigned between them.

* Jews throughout all generations yearned to grace the sacred soil of the Holy Land and to live there. However, their sole purpose was to fulfill the commandments dependent upon the land and to absorb its holiness. Never, G-d forbid, did they have any nationalist or sovereign intent whatsoever which, as mentioned above, is forbidden to us. Indeed, also here in the Holy Land, our fathers lived in neighborly harmony with the Palestinian residents of the land, helping one another, to mutual benefit.

* Until about two hundred years ago, the vast majority of Jews observed the Torah and the commandments in entirety. Jewry's leaders were Torah scholars, who directed the people according to the Torah. They were loyal citizens in the host nations where they dwelled and to the local laws. They prayed for the welfare of their respective governments. To our sorrow, at that time a small number of Jews slowly left their observance of Torah and commandments. Together with this, they began to deride the spiritual leadership of their people. This assimilation was the basis upon which, one hundred years ago, the ideology of Zionism was born. Its founders were assimilated Jews who had abandoned the Torah.

* Immediately at the founding of the Zionist movement, masses of Jews under the leadership of their Rabbis, launched a heavy battle against Zionism. Their attack was directed not only at the non-religious Zionist idea, but rather, primarily at its opposition to the Torah-ordained path that Jewry must follow while in exile. As such, the Zionists incited the nations of the world, demanding political sovereignty over the Holy Land while remaining oblivious to the resentment this would arouse in the Palestinian Arabs, the land's veteran inhabitants. As stated, the leaders of Orthodox Jewry vehemently opposed the movement with all force.

* The Zionists, having their own agenda, refused to heed the voice of the Rabbis and Torah authority. They persisted in their ways until they succeeded in influencing the British government to issue the Balfour Declaration concerning the establishment of a national home for the Jews in the land of Israel."

To our great sorrow, from that point on began the deterioration of the good relations between the Jews and the Arab inhabitants of the land. This occurred because the Arab people understood that the Zionists wished to seize ruler ship from them.

In addition, the Arab people had suspicions as if the Jewish people wished to seize control of the Temple Mount and other similar sites. Matters worsened as a result.

* The Jewish leadership of that time saw it as proper to clarify before the Arab leaders that the Torah-true Jews had no desire whatsoever for sovereignty, and that our desire was to continue to live in peace with the Arabs, as we had always done.

* Torah Jewry protests at every opportunity against the Zionist rule over the Holy Land, and the Zionist rebellion against the neighboring nations.

Torah Jewry has condemned the Zionist oppression of the Palestinians, the land's veteran inhabitants who have been driven from their homes and properties. The Zionists' barbaric and violent deeds are absolutely antithetical to the essence of the Jewish people.

* Torah Jewry has never ever recognized the Zionist state. Since the Zionists succeeding in establishing their state, Torah Jewry has continuously announced to the world that the Zionists do not represent the Jewish people, and that the name "Israel" that they use is a forgery.

For as has been stated above, it is forbidden to us from the Torah to rebel against the nations, and all sovereignty by us is prohibited.

Rather, we await the days when all the world will recognize the sovereignty of the Creator, and the words of the prophet Isaiah will yet be fulfilled: "And they will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. No nation will lift its sword against any other, nor will they learn warfare anymore."

* Anti-Zionist Orthodox Jews have refrained to this day from taking any funds from the Zionist regime, whether for their educational institutions, synagogues or other benefits. Obviously, they do not participate in the Zionist elections, whether for the "Knesset" or for the municipality.

We do not serve in their army, and we even avoid speaking in the Hebrew language that the Zionists Invented.

All this is done because Torah Jewry does not recognize the Zionist regime, which is against the Torah and against humanity.

* Lately, the question has once again arisen concerning the Temple Mount and sovereignty over it. Thus, we wish to state unequivocally:

a) In our time, it is a severe Torah prohibition for any Jew to set foot on any part of the Temple Mount area.

b) The Jewish people have no claim whatsoever to sovereignty over this holy site, which is under Islamic authority, nor over any other holy site.

* The Zionists have no right of any sovereignty over even one inch of the Holy Land.
They do not represent the Jewish people in any way whatsoever.
They have no right to speak in the name of the Jewish people.
Therefore, their words, declarations and actions are not in any way representative of the Jewish people.

Gal 3:

6 ¶ Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

29 And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.
